IMPRISONMENT

The defendant is hereby committed to the custody of the Federal Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a total term of 300 months. This term of imprisonment consists of terms of 120 months as to each of Counts 1s through 10s, to be served concurrently with each other but consecutively to a term of 60 months as to each of Counts 11s through 15s, to be served concurrently with each other but consecutively to a term of 120 months as to each of Counts 16s through 21s, to be served concurrently with each other but consecutively to all other terms imposed, to produce a total term of 300 months. It is recommended that the defendant be given credit toward this federal sentence for all time served in custody since August 30, 2018, that is not credited toward another sentence. ***

The Court makes the following recommendations to the Bureau of Prisons:
The Court directs that the Bureau of Prisons monitor and restrict the defendant's communications, to include mail, internet, electronic, and telephonic, to the extent necessary to ensure that he does not file, attempt to file, or threaten to file any false liens against any federal officials or file any false bankruptcy declarations. The Court has the inherent authority to impose this restriction during the defendant's incarceration and finds that it is necessary to achieve the statutory purposes of sentencing based on the facts proven at the defendant's trial. The Court notes that this restriction is to help prevent additional crimes that could be committed by the defendant during his incarceration. See, e.g., United States v. Holloway, 740 F.2d 1373, 1382 (6th Cir. 1984); Chapman v. Pacholke, No. CV-12-5116-JPH, 2013 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 169216, at *17 (E.D. Wash. Nov. 12, 2013); & United States v. Felipe, S16 94 Cr. 395 (JSM), 1997 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 5771, at *8-9 (S.D.N.Y. Apr. 29, 1997).

The Court also provides notice to the Bureau of Prisons of the restrictions on Defendant's filings imposed by this Court in Civil Action Number 1:18-cv-100 on May 15, 2019, (doc. 21).

It is recommended that the defendant be evaluated by Bureau of Prisons officials to establish his participation in an appropriate program of substance abuse treatment and counseling, including the Residential Drug Abuse Program (RDAP), and any appropriate mental health treatment counseling during his term of incarceration. The Court also recommends that the defendant be housed as far away as possible from Augusta, Georgia, and at a minimum outside the state of Georgia, subject to capacity or any other regulation affecting such a designation.

The defendant is remanded to the custody of the United States Marshal.
 The defendant shall surrender to the United States Marshal for this district:
 at _____  a.m.  p.m. on _____.
 as notified by the United States Marshal.
 The defendant shall surrender for service of sentence at the institution designated by the Bureau of Prisons:
 before 2 p.m. on _____.
 as notified by the United States Marshal.
 as notified by the Probation or Pretrial Services Office.

SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, you will be on supervised release for a term of: 3 years as to each count, to be served concurrently.

MANDATORY CONDITIONS

1. You must not commit another federal, state, or local crime.
2. You must not unlawfully possess a controlled substance.
3. You must refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. You must submit to 1 drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least 2 periodic drug tests thereafter, as determined by the court.
 The above drug testing condition is suspended, based on the court's determination that you pose a low risk of future substance abuse. (Check, if applicable.)
4.  You must cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer. (Check, if applicable.)
5.  You must comply with the requirements of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (34 U.S.C. § 20901, et seq.) as directed by the probation officer, the Bureau of Prisons, or any state sex offender registration agency in which he or she resides, works, is a student, or was convicted of a qualifying offense. (Check, if applicable.)
6.  You must participate in an approved program for domestic violence. (Check, if applicable.)
7.  You must make restitution in accordance with 18 §§ U.S.C. 2248, 2259, 2264, 2327, 3663, 3663A, and 3664. (Check, if applicable.)
8. You must pay the assessment imposed in accordance with 18 § U.S.C. 3013.

You must comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court as well as with any other conditions on the attached page.

DEFENDANT: Timothy Jermaine Pate
CASE NUMBER: 1:18CR00045-1

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

1. You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of your release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
2. After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
3. You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
4. You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
5. You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
6. You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
7. You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
8. You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
9. If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
10. You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e. anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as a nunchakus or tasers).
11. You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting permission from the court.
12. If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to another person (including an organization), the probation officer may require you to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified that person about the risk.
13. You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

U.S. Probation Office Use Only

A U.S. probation officer has instructed me on the conditions specified by the court and has provided me with a written copy of this judgment containing these conditions. For further information regarding these conditions, see Overview of Probation and Supervised Release Conditions, available at: www.uscourts.gov.

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

1. You must submit to substance abuse testing to determine if you have used a prohibited substance. You must not attempt to obstruct or tamper with the testing methods.
2. You must provide the probation officer with access to any requested financial information and authorize the release of any financial information. The probation office may share financial information with the U.S. Attorney's Office.
3. You must not communicate, or otherwise interact, with any of the victims in this case, either directly or through someone else, without first obtaining the permission of the probation officer.
4. You must submit your person, property, house, residence, office, vehicle, papers, computers (as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 1030(e)(1)), other electronic communications or data storage devices or media, to a search conducted by a United States probation officer. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation of release. You must warn any other occupants that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition. The probation officer may conduct a search under this condition only when reasonable suspicion exists that you have violated a condition of supervision and that the areas to be searched contain evidence of this violation. Any search must be conducted at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner.
5. You must not file any lien or bankruptcy declaration without first notifying the United State Probation Officer of your intent to file the lien or bankruptcy declaration. The probation officer is given discretion in carrying out the enforcement of this condition.
